GUIDANCE

Describe, using no more than 500 of your own words (10% over allowed), details of relevant initiatives that you have implemented and/or actions you have taken within your premises in relation to Best Newcomer: Initiatives or actions in support of the ethos of Best Bar None as outlined in the criteria.

Applicants should provide evidence which supports that they go beyond what is required and expected from a licensee and would merit their premises being awarded a national title.

Applicants should refer to any innovative or unique practices which differentiate them from their competitors and should link these to relevant initiatives implemented and/or actions taken within their premises in their first year to embrace the standards of Best Bar None.

Applicants may wish to refer to the 5 objectives of the Licensing Scotland Act 2005 i.e.

- Preventing Crime & Disorder
- Securing Public Safety
- Preventing Public Nuisance
- Protecting & Improving Public Health
- Protecting children from harm

Applicants should also consider anything of note in relation to: Customer Care, Staff Training and Social Responsibility

Here's your chance to promote your venue and what it means to be part of Best Bar None.
