

Why you should join Best Bar None Scotland

Best Bar None Scotland is supported by the Scottish Government and the Licenced Industry. Registering to join is free and gives you access to the following benefits:

Training & Support Resources

We can offer members a wide range of training courses that are designed to promote high standards of safety for your staff, venue and customers.

Good Practice Guidance

Our local co-ordinators throughout Scotland will keep you informed on the latest policies and industry best practice guidance.

Partnerships

Members will gain access to Best Bar None's network of support partners.

Media Coverage

BBN Scotland members who proactively take steps to raise standards and improve safety in their local communities will be featured across our media channels. An opportunity for free, positive advertising from Facebook and Twitter to the BBN website as well as the local and national press.

Community

Join like-minded venues in addressing licensing matters in your local communities and collectively have a positive influence on building a safer night-time economy.

Insurance Savings

Accredited premises can also make the most of cost savings on their insurance premiums of between 10-20%.

Industry Recognition & Reward

Local and national Best Bar None Scotland awards allow you to recognise and reward the great work of your team. Highlights your innovation, the quality of your venue and the success of your well-trained staff.
